

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

One-sided programs, like "Stolen Honor", do not serve the public interest and are harmful to our democracy. Please do not allow Sinclair to force it's stations to air "Stolen Honor" If you do, please insure that they also air a pro-Kerry program like "Going Upriver" shortly after Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.
Thank you.
